

2024 Application Form Fellow of the Canadian Nurse Educators Institute

The Canadian Nurse Educators Institute (CNEI) Fellowship program's objective is to acknowledge the exceptional high calibre of nurse educators who exemplify excellence in nursing education and nursing education scholarship. CASN defines "nursing education" as the necessary academic and practice-based preparation professional nurses require to provide competent, safe, ethical, and compassionate care to individuals, families and communities in a wide variety of settings and across the lifespan.

The CNEI Advisory Board is now accepting applications for those individuals who wish to be considered for entry to the Fellows of CNEI in 2024. Individuals who are inducted as Fellows form a distinguished network of outstanding nurse educators in Canada who have contributed to nursing education in sustained and significant ways.

Admission Criteria

To be named a Fellow of CNEI, the candidate will have provided evidence of their enduring and substantial contributions to nursing education, in the scholarship of teaching and learning, over a minimum of the last 10 years, in the following ways:

1. Leadership in teaching and learning
2. Active promotion of excellence in faculty development
3. A program of research in nursing education and nursing education scholarship

Candidates must speak to all categories and must show evidence of sustained excellence, beyond a local level, in at least three of the following areas:

- Nursing education policy
- Nursing education administration
- Mentoring students and peers
- Curriculum development and design
- Innovative teaching and learning strategies
- Accreditation

Eligibility

- Any current or former faculty member or administrator engaged in educational scholarship and activities of a CASN member school.
- Any Registered Nurse educator in Canada who can demonstrate they meet the admission criteria with a level of excellence.
- Any international nurse educator or administrator, who demonstrates they meet the admission criteria with a level of excellence as it applies to the Canadian nursing context, may also be considered.

Selection

- The Selection Committee – Fellows of CNEI reviews the applicants and makes recommendation to the CNEI Advisory Board.
- Annual admissions are inducted at CASN's Council Meeting in November.
